School of language and culture studies
aug/2017 - aug/2018

“The teachers are great! I learned not only academic content but skills for life. UERJ’s students are also very open and have an interest in the culture of other countries, that makes the integration easier for foreigners into the academical life in Rio de Janeiro. There were many events such as lectures, seminars, congresses, and students meetings, creating a very active student life.”
